

ACT THREE

22 EXT. CAMPUS - STONE BENCH -- NEXT DAY (DAY 3)

22

The next morning. Monk and Natalie are back on campus. They are standing near a DISTINCTIVE, OLD STONE BENCH.

Natalie is reading from a REUNION ITINERARY...

NATALIE

There's a reception for "all current and past Chess Club members". Weren't you in the Chess Club? That sounds like fun. You never know. It could be fun.

MONK

Have you ever seen a chess club, Natalie?

Monk appears worried about the condition of this particular bench. He's pulling weeds, polishing the stone, etc.

NATALIE

What are doing?

MONK

Weeds.

NATALIE

There are weeds all over. Are you going to clean the whole campus?

Monk doesn't answer. He continues to obsessively pull weeds.

23 INT. FREE CLINIC -- SAME TIME

23

Across town. Capt. Stottlemeyer is in the school's FREE CLINIC. Some STUDENTS are there, waiting to see a doctor.

There's a POSTER on the wall: MEDICAL MARIJUANA PROGRAM. Stottlemeyer glares at it, disapprovingly.

A CLINIC DOCTOR enters, carrying an EMPLOYMENT FILE. He's an old hippie. He's been working there for 30 years.

CLINIC DOCTOR

Here it is. Katherine Rutherford's employment file.

STAR →

"MONK" - Clinic Doctor

1/2

(CONTINUED)

23 CONTINUED:

clinic doctor

23

CAPT. STOTTLEMEYER

If there were any complaints against her, or any grievances, they'd be in here?

CLINIC DOCTOR

(nodding)

We'd have a copy of it. But I can't think of anyone who had anything bad to say about her. Katie was an angel. A great nurse. I still can't believe what happened. It's just heartbreaking.

Stottlemeyer looks through the FILE. The Doctor takes a closer look at him.

CLINIC DOCTOR (cont'd)

(puzzled)

Did you go to school here?

CAPT. STOTTLEMEYER

Me? No.

CLINIC DOCTOR

You look familiar. Maybe one of your kids...?

CAPT. STOTTLEMEYER

No. I was here once. For a No Nukes Rally. But that was a long time ago.

CLINIC DOCTOR

(nodding, satisfied)

Yeah. That must be it.

1 END

The Doctor steps away. Lt. Disher enters.

LT. DISHER

Captain. I tracked down Kalimarakis. I don't think he's the guy.

(reading from notebook)

Number one, it turns out he was allowed to join the Olympic swim team as an alternate. He got a waiver.

CAPT. STOTTLEMEYER

So there's no motive?

LT. DISHER

Right

(MORE)

2/2

(CONTINUED)