1 EXT. PARKING GARAGE -- DAY (DAY 1)

Downtown. In front of a LARGE PARKING GARAGE.

A public ceremony is in progress. They're preparing to tear down the garage. A BIG SIGN: COMING SOON- The SUMMERSET AVENUE PLAYGROUND.

A SMALL, EXCITED CROWD- mostly PARENTS and KIDS- are watching. Balloons. Hand-made signs. A HIGH SCHOOL BAND is playing. Some CONSTRUCTION WORKERS. A few POLITICIANS.

And a LOCAL TV NEWS CREW...

TV NEWSWOMAN

Jimmy, we finally have some good news to report. I'm downtown, on the corner of Summer set and Second Street, in front of one of the oldest, and ugliest, parking garages in the city.

A BULLDOZER REVS its ENGINE. The CROWD CHEERS!

Last month, the city council voted to tear down this eyesore and replace it with a beautiful playground and park for the children of this neighborhood. As you can see, it was a pretty popular decision. Here comes the bulldozer... the kids are cheering...

Then- a problem. A CONSTRUCTION WORKER emerges from the garage. He looks concerned. He steps up to the gruff FOREMAN.

Hold on, Jimmy. Something's happening.

The Foreman gestures: "Turn it off". The BULLDOZER stops. The CROWD murmurs, confused.

Something is happening here. The bulldozer has stopped. There may be someone still inside the garage...
